Love Your Neighbor

Some years ago, when I was first starting out in ministry, my dad gave me a piece of advice. He said, "Remember, it's all about loving God and loving people." Love God, love others. There's something about this deceptively simple axiom that asks us to return to it again and again to explore what it really means for us.

Jesus summed up the "greatest commandment" this way, he said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind and with all your strength. And, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." (Mark 12:30-31)

If you are like me, this is not really "new information". Children in Sunday School happily recite these verses. Young people in youth groups sing songs about these words. And even the most "occasional" Sunday visitor has some sense that this basic teaching is true.

And yet, questions arise. Like,

"who is my neighbor?" In the context of a world on fire with wars and rumors or war, with the refugee crisis in and out of the news, with the daily realities of life in the Silicon Valley where we may know very little about the people who live closest to us.

Or even loving God with "all our heart". Does that leave room for questions and doubts? Does that take into account the way that we all chase after glittery and golden things (our "idols") from time to time? Or loving God with our "souls", in a place where we rarely have time to engage with "soul work". Or loving God with all our minds, which asks us to engage the intellect and to sharpen our thinking—as Presbyterian Christians, we have a special affinity for being able to "think the faith" as part of believing.

And finally, as a parent of young children, how can we love God with all of our strength, when frankly, life can be so tiring! The end of the day comes and we can feel wiped out or depleted, and the only strength left goes into settling into the couch for an hour with The Bachelor on TV. (continued on page 2)

(continued from page 1) So, these are the issues. These are the challenges we face. These and many more that come to mind, once we take time to think more broadly about this simple, core statement: Love God, Love Others.

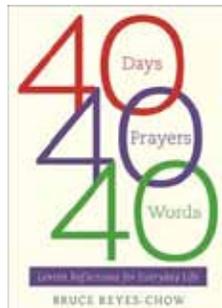

This Lent, which is a 40 day season leading up to Easter, our church will focus on this core teaching from Jesus. We'll do that in a number of ways. On Sundays, we will have a sermon series going through each of these ways to love God (heart, soul, mind, and strength).

There will also be a number of special ways that you and your family can engage with how we love our neighbors. We will host a special, traditional Seder meal, led by Rabbi Melanie Aron from Shir Hadash—this is an event for all ages and there are special parts for kids (Sunday, March 13th, 5-7pm). This meal will be a chance to learn from our Jewish neighbors, and the food will be provided by an Israeli caterer (yum!).

We will also ask the question, "how can we love our Muslim neighbors?" We will host a special Supper and Study event (Wednesday, March 2nd, 6-8pm) with a visiting Imam who will share from his faith tradition and also engage with us around current questions and issues.

Loving God and loving others is our shared calling as Christian people trying to follow Jesus. And the opportunity in the weeks ahead, is to engage a little bit more in what this will mean and look like for our lives. I am excited about the months ahead and look forward to experiencing this season with you.

Peace,
Pastor Dave

Devotional Book for Lent

The PCLG staff will be using a new devotional book titled, 40 Days, 40 Prayers, 40 Words: Lenten Reflections for Everyday Life by Bruce Reyes-Chow this Lenten season. If you would like to get a copy as well, there are a few copies available in the church office for $10. It is also available on Amazon, iBooks, the PC(USA) online store, and other places such books are sold.

Bruce Reyes-Chow is the a former moderator of the Presbyterian Church (USA), and currently serves as Transitional Team Pastor of Valley Community Presbyterian Church in Portola Valley, California, and as Senior Consultant with the Center for Progressive Renewal.

Children's Ministry

“Now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love” 1

Corinthians 13:13

While, this is not our memory verse for this month, LOVE is everywhere at this time of year. Love is the main thing God expects of us as Christians. He says that we should love him and others. 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 explains how a loving person will treat others.

FAMILY ACTIVITY: Read 1 Corinthians 13. Have your children write on note cards each thing said about love in verses 4-7. At mealtime, or whenever your whole family is together, have each person draw one of the cards. Then ask each one to tell about a time when someone in the family showed this kind of love.

Upcoming Events

- February 7 - Annual Congregation Meeting after church (children will stay in their classrooms until adults are finished with the meeting)
- February 10 - Ash Wednesday Service 7-8pm
- February 21 - Family Worship
- February 23 - Children's Committee Meeting - 11am
- March 13 - Seder Dinner for PCLG Families
- March 20 - Church Easter Egg Hunt

What's going on in God's Place this month?

Preschool (2.5 yr.- 3.5 yr): In this class children will continue to experience God's world and Word through stories, crafts, games and playtime.

Youth News

An 11th hour poem
by Steve Fainer

A gut punch of shame
you've let down your friend again!
how many days past the deadline this time?

What can I write for the Spire
to inspire

A hummingbird floats in the breezy branches of our redwood grove.
looking for nectar?

a lesson in our own spiritual flightiness,
a tendency to look for food in the wrong places or judge not where your brother or sister finds nourishment.

still others might notice crows flying overhead and the hummingbird's retreat.

Me? Well, of course I see the hummingbird perched in her tree,
gusty gusts push her around,
enemies above abound,
The hummingbird can rest, will we?

Music Notes

From the Music Director

The month of February will feature music from Aaron Copland and Felix Mendelssohn.

On February 7th, the choir will sing Copland's Zion's Walls accompanied by the bells and piano. Zion's Walls, arranged by Aaron Copland as a part of a song cycle, is an old revivalist song. Aaron Copland studied in Paris with Nadia Boulanger, the famous French compositional pedagogue. Boulanger worked with composers, arrangers and conductors as far ranging as American composers Virgil Thompson and Phillip Glass to the record producer and arranger Quincy Jones, who worked closely with Michael Jackson on his seminal album, Thriller.

Copland is famous for creating what might be termed as an American sound or style in orchestra music and songs. He did this often by quoting old American folk songs or American Hymns. Perhaps his most iconic piece of orchestral Americana is Fanfare for the Common Man, a familiar piece used often in television and the Olympics. In addition to his orchestral pieces, he also wrote the Ballets Appalachian Spring, Rodeo and Billy the Kid. The ballets, like much of his music seem to capture a thematic thread reminiscent of American Music, bringing to mind the beautiful sweeping, untouched landscapes and adventure of the American frontier. If you are not familiar with Aaron Copland, I would invite you to listen to Appalachian Spring or Fanfare for the Common Man.

A quick note on Felix Mendelssohn. On February 21st the choir will sing, How Lovely are the Messengers, from Mendelssohn's oratorio, St. Paul, composed in the 1830s. St. Paul, though very popular in it's day, never achieved the popularity of Mendelssohn's masterpiece, Elijah. The text is based on Romans, v. 15 and 16. In addition to ballet, orchestra music, piano music and songs, Mendelssohn is known for his promotion and work to bring J. S. Bach back into the musical limelight. The work he did in saving and rediscovering works by Bach, some of which was almost lost, is considered an invaluable achievement in the world of music and musical arts.

How Lovely are the Messengers is reflective of Mendelssohn's lyric and tuneful style. Sometimes almost neo-classic in style, Mendelssohn effectively reflects the Biblical narrative into an artful and engaging music line, much like Handel, but tinged with the German romantic melody line.

All the best!

SPRING RING

Have you ever heard hundreds or thousands of handbells at one time? Now's your chance! Members of our bell choir will venture to Valley Church in Cupertino [10885 N Stelling Rd] on Saturday April 9. We rehearse all day and present a program at 6:00 p.m. Seating is rather limited, so it's better to arrive early. Four pieces will be played by the whole group, and there will also be performances by smaller bell ensembles. At lunchtime, we will be treated to a concert in their sanctuary by bell soloist Sue Garton. The final concert will include: Jazz Fanfare & Alleluia, 10,000 Reasons, Energique [the ringers will be divided into two groups playing different parts], and When in Our Music God is Glorified with brass and organ. Also on the program is a group known as the Intense Ringers. It's a fun day; please join us!

Sunday, March 20 – 6:00 p.m. (the entire work!)      Monday, March 21 – 7:00 p.m. (popular selections!)

Last year's Sing was so well received that we're having two performances this year! On Sunday we will perform the entire work, from start to finish. If you have ever wanted to sing the whole thing with orchestral accompaniment, this is your chance. On Monday we will perform some of the more popular selections. If you would like a good taste of Messiah but want a shorter evening, this is for you.

Pastors Dave and Erica will guide us through the evening, reminding us that every word we sing comes straight from the Bible.

Invite a friend to join you! People love to sing Handel's Messiah, so it's easy to invite others. Let them know that everyone gets to sing everything, including the solos!

Get ready for the Sing! Come to one, some, or all of the four optional rehearsals, Sundays, February 21 & 28 and March 6 & 13 at 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. The rehearsals are completely optional, so don't feel like you have to come to them in order to come to the Sing. They're also each independent rehearsals; different songs are practiced each night, so if you can't come to all of the rehearsals, it's okay to come to as many as you can.

If you can volunteer to help at the rehearsals or at one of the Sings, let Chris Bollinger know (chris@thebollingers.org).

Be a part of the Messiah Sing! It's an opportunity for worship through song, bible study with Pastors Dave & Erica, outreach to your friends, fellowship at the reception, and service by volunteering to help!

Here's the small print...

Everything is FREE.

For the rehearsals, just show up in the sanctuary.

For the Sings, come to the Messiah Sing table at the fellowship hour after worship to pick up your FREE (but required) tickets, or email your request to messiahsing@pclg.org.

Communion Preparers Needed

PCLG offers seated communion four times per year including Christmas Eve. We need two to four volunteers who would be willing to prepare communion elements for those Sundays. This would include purchasing bread and grape juice and cutting the bread into squares. On Sunday morning, the individual communion cups need to be filled, the patens filled with bread, and the communion table set before the service begins.

If you would like to serve our PCLG community in this way, please contact Ruth Schlotzhauer, Chairperson of Worship and Music, at 408 865 1583 or by email at ruth@isfeld.net

High School Mexico Mission Trip

Did you and your family get to enjoy steaming hot pancakes and crispy bacon at our recent annual Mexico trips fundraiser? A great time was had by all AND, thanks to your generosity, we raised over $6800! If you didn't get a chance to contribute, and you would like to make a donation toward these important mission trips, please find our envelope board after church on Sunday, leave a notated check in the offering plate, or contribute online.

Our team of 20 high school students and 7 adult leaders will leave on Saturday, February 13 for their house-building trip in rural Tijuana, where they will camp and build a house alongside a family in need. Please keep them all in your prayers as they embark on this journey together.

All-Church Mexico Mission Trip

If you are interested in the Summer Mission Trip to Mexico, please save the date! The trip will be June 18-25.

If you would like to learn more, please attend one of our two informational gatherings (March 13 or April 10). We will be there to present an overview of the trip, answer questions, and talk about the next steps you can take toward joining the team!

If you have questions now, you can also send them to mexico@pclg.org.

The mission committee meets (usually) the second Tuesday of the month at 1 p.m. For more information on projects and programs, email Elder Martha Wills at mtswills@gmail.com.

Financial Report

Dear friends,

The year-end results for 2015 are in and we have spectacular results. Because of much larger than projected unpledged offerings and lower than projected expenses, PCLG ended 2015 with a more than $57,000 surplus!

While our pledged offering came in at 93% of budget, our unpledged offering came in at 195% of budget. Expenses came in at 96% of budget.

Meanwhile, our investments made a gain in the final quarter, however it was not enough to break even for the year. Our investment value fell $27,760, or 1.9%. Because of your generous giving, we did not have to sell any of our investments this year.

2015 giving statements that have not been picked up will be mailed at the end of January. Giving envelopes are available, should you request them. Please call or email me if you have any questions or would like envelopes.

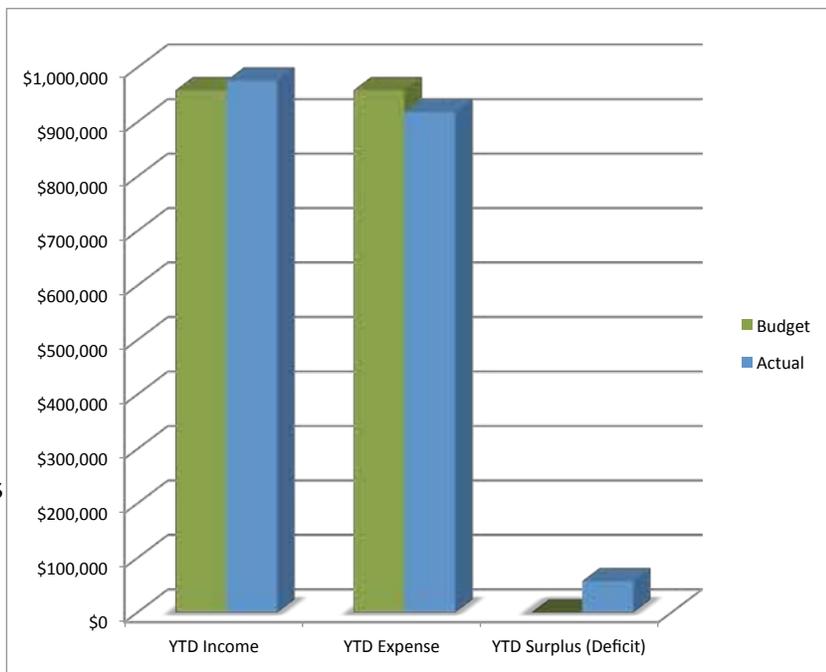

Rest assured that all pledge and giving information is kept confidential. You may pledge and give online at www.pclg.org. My email address is kristy.cole@pclg.org, should you wish to contact me.

Thank you for your wonderful generosity.

God Bless,

Kristy Cole
